

Booking Now Open

www.scottishintensivecare.org.uk

Education Meeting
23rd and 24th November 2017

IET Teacher Building
Glasgow
(RCOA CPD Points will be applied for)

Open to trainees, consultants, associated specialists, allied health professionals and nursing staff with an interest in Intensive Care Medicine.

Full Programme on Reverse

Meeting Fees:

SICS Members: £85/day

Non-Members: £95/day

AHP/Nursing Staff: £75/day

Includes: A buffet lunch, Coffee and Teas

For further information please email
sicstrainees@gmail.com

SICS

scottish intensive care society

Thursday 23rd November 2017

(To be confirmed)

08:30-09:00 – Registration

09:00-09:05 - Welcome

09:05-09:45

Pleural Disease in the ICU

Dr Kevin Blyth – Consultant Respiratory Physician, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital

09:45 – 10:30

Long term ventilation for neuromuscular disease, COPD and Obesity Hypoventilation Syndrome: What is coming your way?

Dr Antony Bateman – Consultant Intensivist, Western General Hospital, Edinburgh

10:30-11:00 Coffee

11:00-11:45

Maternal Critical Care

Dr Monika Beatty – Consultant in Critical Care, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

11:45-12:30

The ill returning traveller and the Critical Care Unit

Dr Alisdair MacConnachie – Consultant Infectious Diseases Physician, QEUP, Glasgow

12:30-13:30

Lunch

Dealing with conflict and complaints mini-symposium

13:30-14:00: Dealing with conflicts and complaints

Dr Claire Macaulay – Medical Defence Union

14:00-14:30: Difficult issues surrounding withdrawal of care

Dr Rhona Das – Consultant Anaesthetist, Golden Jubilee National Hospital

14:30-15:00: Procurator Fiscal: Role of the fiscal, what do we need to know, how to avoid unnecessary Fatal Accident Inquiries

Mr David Green – Head of Scottish Fatalities Investigation Unit (SFIU)

15:00-15:15 Discussion and Questions

15:15 – 15:45 Coffee

15:45-16:30

Human Factors in the ICU

Dr Michael Money Penny - Director, Scottish Centre of Simulation and Clinical Human Factors

16:30-17:15

Critical Care perspectives on the HaemOnc patient and novel Oncological therapies

Dr Vimal Grover – Consultant Intensivist, Royal Marsden Hospital

SICS

scottish intensive care society

Friday 24th November 2017

(To be confirmed)

08:30-09:00 – Registration

09:00-09:45

Vasopressors and Inotropes in Critical Care

Dr Robyn Smith – Consultant in Cardiothoracic Anaesthesia and Intensive Care, Golden Jubilee National Hospital, Glasgow

09:45-10:30

Update on management of status epilepticus & non epileptic seizures

Dr Ros Murray - Consultant Neurologist, Institute for Neurological Sciences, Glasgow

10:30-11:00 Coffee

11:00-11:45

Interstitial Lung Disease in the ICU

Dr Nik Hirani – Senior Lecturer and Consultant Respiratory Physician, University of Edinburgh

11:45-12:30

Palliative Care in the ICU: Barriers, Challenges and Delivery of Good Care

Dr Paul Keeley, Palliative Care Consultant, Glasgow Royal Infirmary

12:30-1:30

Lunch

13:-30-14:15

Rationale for the development of pathways for devastating brain injury

Dr Alex Manara – FICM Advisor on Organ Donation, Consultant in Anaesthetics and Intensive Care, Southmead Hospital

14:15-15:30

Use of lung ultrasound in diagnosis and management in Critical care

Dr Rosie Baruah – Consultant In Anaesthetics and Intensive Care, Western General Hospital, Edinburgh

15:30-16:00 Coffee

16:00-16:45

Acute Liver Failure and Decompensation – Admission and ICU Management

Dr Mike Gillies – Consultant in Anaesthetics and Intensive Care, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

Closing Remarks 16:45

Meeting Close 16:50