

GLASGOW 2019

54th Annual Scientific Meeting

Thursday 9th - Friday 10th May

Technology & Innovation Centre, Glasgow

Join us in beautiful Glasgow, famed for its' industrial prowess, rich architectural and cultural heritage and impressive gastronomic scene. We are delighted that Glasgow is our host city for NACCS ASM 2019.

We will be joined by leading experts in Neuro Anaesthesia and Critical Care which will be alongside specialist workshops and lively debate.

Join us for an evening of networking and dancing* at our traditional Scottish Ceilidh! The NACCSGBI Committee are delighted to announce this change to the usual Conference Dinner and hope that you will be able to join us for a night of great fun and entertainment. *Dancing is not compulsory!
